WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

In these times of stress, of sorrow and need, whenever man should become his brother's keeper, what are you doing to help the de-pendents of your broilers at the front?

Interest, in the needy ones, regret for the departed ones, and sympathy for the sorrowing ones left behind is hest shown in the real, tangible help you render.

Thing very Colored man must be his brother's keeper; he must be the keeper of the needy dependents of our Colored soldiers who are in the treaches, and on bloody hattle fields "over the colored was a soldier to the colored soldiers who are in the treaches and on bloody hattle fields "over the colored soldiers are the colored soldiers and the colored soldiers who are the colored soldiers are the colored soldiers."

Those of the race who, immediately after that awful, tragic affair you doing? at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. December 11, 1917, insulged in protests and desumriation but have not contributed to the support of the real immeent victims—their families—dependents left behind, have NOT done their FTLL duty. But you MUST do your duty, as our Colored soldiers will do and are doing their duty in the trenches.

What are you doing? From all over the country rome reports that the Colored people the Colored men, and the Colored women-have been aroused to the urgency of relief and the necessity of contributing to the National Colored Soldiers' Comfort Committee for the relief of sorrowing and needy dependents of our brave boys at the front. What are

Thousands of our boys are NOW. "over there," many thousands more will soon be at the front. Thise-all of these-are leaving de-pendents behind-many sorrowing and needy dependents. What are you doing?

you have a spark of ruce highly; if you have gennine regret for Culored soldiers who have met a tragic end; in have real sympathy for their dependents left behind, you will DO YOUR. DUTY by sending on a contribution, by getting your friends and meighbors to contribute, and by helping to organize a big campaign in your community to raise funds for the National Colored Soldiers Comfort Committee. Act today—don't delay. If our boys at the front know that their dependents left behind are being cared for, they can fight harder, more heroically—more enthusiastically. Help 'our lays' help win this war quickly by providing relief for their needly dependents left behind.
